MELILLA

Spanish city located in North Africa. It is located in the eastern part of a small peninsula, in the bay between the capes of Tres Forcas and Agua.

The climate is semi-arid Mediterranean with scarce rainfall and an average temperature of 20° C.

It has an area of 12,5 square km and population of 80.000 inhabitants, composed of four cultures (Christian, Muslim, Hebrew and Hindu), which makes Melilla a clear example of coexistence.

Regarding Taxes:

Melilla maintains a privileged Tax Regime, affecting State and Local Taxes

- 50% Rebates in the Corporate Tax in the I.R.PF, in the Inheritance and Donations Tax.
- Bonuses of 75% on the Net Wealth Tax.
- Indirect Taxation, exemptions in the Value Added Tax (I.V.A.), the Special Taxes on Hydrocarbons, Tobacco and Alcoholic Beverages, enjoy a very attenuated Regime.

NAUTICAL SITUATION

35° 17' 31" N - 2° 56' 19" O

Due to its privileged geographical location, the Marina Port becomes an attractive destination for sailing enthusiasts who wish to discover new horizons.

PORT

In 1997, began its journey the Marina Port of Melilla, which over time has become one of the main references of the city, settling down since then as an enclave of access and must-attend event, promoting an open port, that satisfies the demand that, in peak, solicit the amateurs to the nautical one.

The succes of our Marina is that from the beginning had a clear vacation of service, alleviating a lack of mooring points in the city.

The Marina Port, which invites you to walk, leisure, entertainment or commercial activity, is a place to enjoy good times. In summer, it is in the city, the main focus of animation, looking for recreation that leads to the summer. In winter, the atmosphere becomes calmer, but no less attractive.

There is no doubt that our Port has imposed a style, setting a standard and this is to offer quality, optimal performance and professionalism.
